SUBJECT: Proposal for Internal Organizational Rules and Student Officer Structure

Dear Dr. Hernandez,

We are writing to propose the implementation of a formal student officer structure and a set of internal operational rules for NU Lipa Chorale. Our primary goal is to support your artistic vision by taking administrative tasks off your plate, allowing you to focus entirely on our musical development.

As our choir grows, we aim to bring resolutions to overlooked mishaps and shortcomings as members of this organization. Thus, by establishing clear rules and specialized roles, we can build a more disciplined, organized, and self-sustaining ensemble.

Together with this letter, is a draft of preliminary sets of internal rules and officers subject for your review. Once approved, we can officially proceed to discuss this with the other members tomorrow.

- Members with three absences will receive a Notice to Explain (NTE) letter and is required to provide a formal written explanation to be sent within 3-5 calendar days. Failure to submit may waive the right to be heard and may be dismissed from the organization and result to forfeiture of scholarship eligibility.
- Members must be on time. Every minute late will correspond to a penalty of 1 peso. This will serve as an added budget for the future projects of the organization.

B. Exit Policy

- Members must finish the whole semester before formally leaving the organization alongside a resignation letter to be sent to the secretary and the chorale's conductor.
- Mid-semester exit is only allowed for emergency purposes. An exit notice letter must be sent to the secretary and the conductor two weeks before the intended exit.
- For members in need of a break due personal reasons or academic purposes may request a temporary Leave of Absence (LOA) instead of fully resigning as a chorale member.
- Graduating members with good standing may receive a certificate of recognition for their commitment and service to the institution as part of NU Lipa Chorale.

- Pioneer choir members should receive an award or special recognition to honor their dedication and long-term commitment to the organization, serving as a meaningful token of gratitude or farewell gift.

C. Scholarship

- As aforementioned, three absences and failure to provide a written explanation will lose one's right to scholarship eligibility.
- Qualifications do not base solely on attendance but also on performance. This is to ensure that each member commits to active learning of their own parts for the betterment of the chorale's performance. The conductor will observe and evaluate each members contribution to their section and the chorale and will decide who are the deserving recipients of the scholarship.

II. Chorale Event Invitations and Performance Requests

Invitations must be submitted to the Junior Advisers of the organization, strictly 3 to 4 weeks prior to the event date due to the following reasons:

1. It requires sufficient time for the members and the conductor to rehearse and perfect their repertoire to ensure a high-quality performance.
2. Short-notice invitations make it incredibly difficult to coordinate schedules. As experienced in recent events, sudden requests result in a shortage of available singers, compromising the chorale's full performance capability.

3. Expected Singing Engagements

- Chorale Competition (Exact date/s are to be announced)
- NU Bites (August)
- Booth for Bulldogs Hunt
- Chorale Concert

4. Proposed Projects

NU LIPA

- Organization Shirt
- New Uniform
- New Logo
- Google Drive for easy access to recordings and music pieces

Thank you for constant support and dedication to push us toward musical excellence.

Respectfully yours,

Members of NU Lipa Chorale
